

Why is it an issue that XM offers these services?? The reality is that XM is making money for these services that are superb and individuals are not listening to local radio. Well on the flip side, I have onstar and I can get my weather and traffic through that, are you going to stop them from being able to do that? Why can't we leave good enough alone!!